consisted of five good lawyers, and they could answer on the next day if they felt so disposed. Noble Neumann said he was willing to do any work the House assigned him, but this matter was more important than appeared on the surface and it indicated a lack of confidence in the committee to require them to report the next day. Rep. Kaunamano expressed boundless confidence in the committee. While Rep. Nawahi was speaking, Noble Neumann rose and said the committee would report the following day if the House desired. Rep. Ashford said he doubted the legality of the resolution, but would offer the following amendment: Resolved, that the Judiciary Committee be instructed to inquire and report, (1) whether it is competent and legal for the Attorney General to at once abandon the prosecution against R. W. Wilcox and his co-defendants; (2) whether the Attorney-General has agreed or promised to abandon the said prosecution upon the happening of any event or events.
